A SHORT MONTH IS LONG ON FUN AT RANDOLPH'S AND WARWICK DENVER HOTEL

From an all-expanded lunch menu to Super Bowl Sunday, there's a lot to do this February

DENVER (January 26, 2010) – February may be the shortest month of the year, but you wouldn't know it looking at Warwick Denver Hotel's calendar of events at Randolph's Restaurant and Bar. Don't stop at Valentine's Day – celebrate Groundhog Day or Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays – or just Wednesday!

NEW EXPANDED LUNCH MENU AT RANDOLPH'S

Randolph's Restaurant and Bar has kept some of your favorites, but added a whole host of additional dining options on its newly expanded lunch menu. The new menu will debut on Monday, February 8, with nearly 70 items – guaranteeing there will be something for everyone. From 19 different sandwich options (such as the Shrimp Po' Boy or Buffalo Chicken Sandwich), to nine different kinds of burgers (such as the Hawaiian and Green Chile Burgers) and 10 upscale entrees (such as Seafood Risotto in a Tomato Fennel Broth and Pan Seared Scallops) – Chef Garrett has created quite the dining experience. And affordability is an added delight, with 39 items priced at $10 or less.

On February 2 and 22, diners who buy one lunch entrée will receive a second entrée of equal or lesser value for free (value $14-$19.) Bring a client, bring a colleague, but take advantage of this offer!
